Democrats Make Gains in Jersey. Trenton, N. J., Nov. 8.—The Democrats have gained six seats in the House of Representatives according to returns available thus far today. This will cut the Republican majority of 7 in the Congressional delegation down to one.

Governor Edward L. Edwards was elected United States Senator over Joseph S. Frelinghuysen, a close personal friend of Harding. George Silver was elected Governor over Gov. Ruyon of Trenton, who was trying for re-election.

Republican Majority of Eight in Senate.

New York, N. Y., Nov. 8.—On the basis of incomplete returns from Michigan it was stated that Charles E. Townsend, Rep., was leading Woodbridge N. Ferris, Dem., for the United States Senatorship. This will make a Republican majority in the next Senate of 8.

With Townsend added, the present status of the Senate will be Republicans, 54; Democrats, 42.

BITTER FIGHT WILL BE MADE AGAINST ADMINISTRATION ON SHIP SUBSIDY

By LAURENCE M. BENEDICT

(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, Nov. 8.—Having been given the benefit of the most intensive advertising campaign ever put on by any agency of the government, outside of the Liberty loan days, the administration ship subsidy measure will be back on the doorstep of Congress for a showdown when the expected special session starts the latter part of November.

Defeat of the measure would constitute the worst possible blow to the administration, as President Harding stands as the foremost champion of subsidy legislation. Seeing the bitter opposition to the bill in his own party, the President gladly threw all his influence behind the bill, thus making it an out-and-out test of his leadership over Congress.

The fight comes first in the House. The plan is to put the subsidy bill to a vote there in the early days of the special session, scheduled to start November 20, and not to try for Senate action until the regular term beginning in December.

Since Congress adjourned in September, a nation-wide campaign has been waged on behalf of the subsidy. Under the direction of Chairman A. B. Lasker of the U. S. Shipping Board, former head of a big Chicago advertising concern, speakers have been sent into all sections of the country and newspaper offices everywhere have been flooded with propaganda to point out the needs of a subsidy for the American shipping interests.

Sell Idea to People. Lasker assured President Harding he would "sell" the subsidy to the American people by the time Congress returned, so that Congressmen could not refuse to vote for the bill.

The subsidy, the country has been told, is imperative if the United States is to have a merchant marine to compete for world trade, and to back up the navy in event of war.

Success of the subsidy appears to be very much in doubt. The measure has gained many new supporters since liquor was ruled off American ships, and Lasker's publicity drive has netted results, but even now, with the time for a test near at hand, the bill is far from being "sold."

The belief is that Republican leaders can drive the subsidy bill through the House, by taking it up under a rule allowing limited debate and no amendments from the floor. However, there may be a different story in the Senate. Senators opposed to the bill have it within their power to talk the subsidy to death if they see they cannot defeat it in a vote.

Administration leaders emphatically deny reports that there have been "trades" between friends of the subsidy, advocates of acceptance of the Ford offer to Muscle Shoals, and the farm bloc, whereby the subsidy will be slowed to go through. The subsidy, they declare, will stand or fall purely on its own merits.

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Try this! Brush Sage Tea and Sulphur Compound through your hair taking one strand at a time

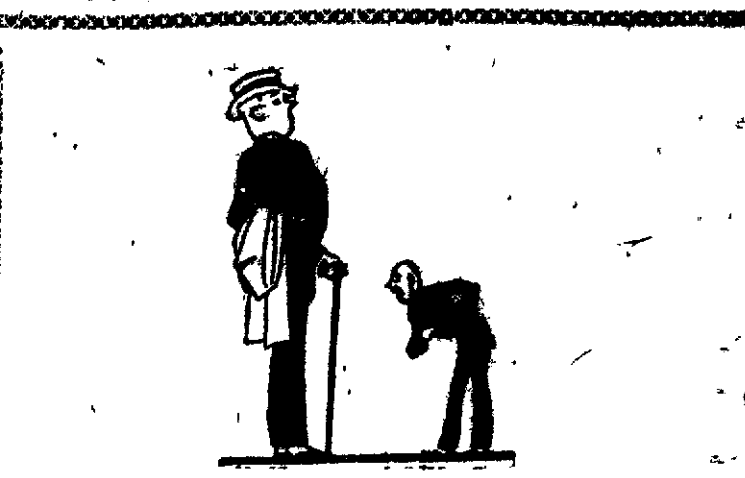

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and trouble some. At little cost you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears and, after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully darkened glossy and luxuriant. Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound and look years younger.

DRINK MORE PASTEURIZED MILK

Drinking milk is one thing and drinking safe milk is another. You may drink milk and it will be a detriment because of the danger lurking in the germs that are so easily carried in the unpasteurized product.

When you drink pasteurized milk that has all the nutriment that is in any milk plus the safety that comes with milk that has been thru the pasteurization process.

CLEARFIELD didn't just happen

Neither did it become an important industrial and farming center by accident.

For prosperity comes only through careful and conservative planning.

Clearfield with its mines, its factories and the fertile fields surrounding it holds a high place in the industrial world.

Foresight—and a broad vision—have brought this about.

Behind Clearfield's present Bell service is an engineering staff whose function is planning for the future telephone needs of the city.

These engineers are just as much concerned about the present or prospective subscriber here, as they are with anyone else in the United States. No problem is so small that it does not merit their attention and no difficulty has yet been too large for them to overcome.

For they are members of the Bell organization.

And all Bell people have a very real interest in the community.

Their ideal is to merit the approbation of their fellow citizens whom they serve.

They aim to give the best of service and to give it with courtesy for they know that courtesy pays.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

The following from the pen of Emerson Hough, which appeared in Monday's Philadelphia Public Ledger is well worth reading:

There are some two millions of acres of public lands open for homestead entry today, but even in the desert regions, where the homestead is of 640 acres instead of the conventional quarter section, there is not much land really worth filing on unless the "settler" intends to sell out as soon as he gets his patent. The average homestead in the West today is only a legal excuse for starving a woman to death. The Land Office figures of acreage of remaining public lands means nothing at all. If we give our soldiers lands, we shall have to reclaim them from swamp or desert. That costs more than $1.25 an acre.

The dry farmer, the little cowman, the stock homesteader, the nester or the would-be sheep man too often is obliged to give up the fight. When he does, some big fellow is always ready to buy him out and throw his patch under the big fence. Today the big cow man does not include under his fences any land to which he does not have title in fee or lease. The time when the cattle barons hung wide their wire, including school lands, non-resident lands, unpatented lands and everything else passed over Grover Cleveland ordered the illegal fences out. That was a victory for the "nester" the "little fellow." Today, in very many cases, the little fellow, after getting title to his modest tract, is obliged to sell. So now we have the final victory of the big fellow, who can operate legally on a large scale and so make it pay.

If the owner of one of these great tracts of land is a real conservationist, he has an opportunity to do good for the disappearing wild animals. The first thing the nester did was to kill the last buffalo or antelope or deer within reach of his land. He is still trying to do that. He is still bringing pressure on the Legislatures and the Game Commissions of the West—the latter usually "rank" political machines—to open up the seasons on big game, to make them longer instead of shorter and to allow the killing of more game rather than less.

Finally the pressure brought on the Game Commission is not in vain. We hear the old talk of "increasing

FLOUTING FASHION

While kings and emperors were falling and thrones and crowns were tumbling in the dust one autocracy still retained a plentitude of power and continued to exact the fealty, homage and humble submission of its subjects—the autocracy of fashion. Entrrenched, as it was, behind the traditions of centuries of absolute dominion, Pope and prelate, sage and philosopher, moralist and physician had denounced its tyranny in vain. Through all opposition fashion reigned supreme and defied the even tenor of its way, smiling and unheeding, it came so cunningly erected in generation after generation of female hearts.

But lo! even in this hitherto all-conquering domain the billows of revolt are now heard and the flag of rebellion is hoisted by hundreds of willing hands. All the pother and disturbance arose from the decree which abolished the short skirt. Robes of trailing garments, dust and germ laden, or else ragged with mud, rose before the mental gaze of the unaccustomed victims; visions, too, of trim and shapely limbs no longer revealed to view and admiration and wasting, as it were, their charms and sweetness on the desert air of swathe-draperies.

But from an unexpected quarter a tocsin sounded a clarion call to arms in resistance of the ukase from Paris. The women of New York met and resolved against it.

All the ministers of the government of fashion rose in might and smote the rebels hip and thigh—or rather side and calf—and a rout seemed to be in progress. But the stentorian tones of feminine Gotham found an echo in a heart, and soon swelled to a diapason that, like the rattled farmer's shot, was heard around the world. It was heard even as far away as Paris is, and the latest report is that the arbiters of the destiny of clothes have admitted defeat and abandoned their campaign for the elimination of the abbreviated skirt.

NO FAIR FOR PHILADELPHIA

The project for a world fair at Philadelphia to celebrate 150 years of American independence in 1926 is on the verge of abandonment. There will be regret throughout Pennsylvania, for all the state would have a share in the pride and glory of a great exhibition of peace, commerce, manufacture, art and every civilized attainment. Yet, perhaps, it is well. Many obstacles were in the way.

Here is a suggestion for Philadelphia: If the fair is not to be held, let 1926 be designated a "Pilgrimage Year." Let it be observed as a year in which all roads shall lead to Independence Hall, to Congress Hall, to Carpenter's Hall, to Franklin's grave, to the Betsy Ross House, to the Norris home in Germantown, and to the countless other shrines of history which have given Philadelphia a high place in the reverence of patriotic citizens throughout the land.

A visit to the cradle of Liberty during a normal year may indeed be more profitable than when attention is certain to be diverted by the glamour of a midway and vast exhibition places.

BRINGING HOME THE "BROKE"

Among the prescribed duties of United States consuls is that of giving assistance to their fellow citizens. To the official embarrassment, this instruction is frequently construed as meaning financial aid—unofficially construed, that is—for there are no public funds at their disposal for this purpose.

During the tourist season just past our diplomatic and commercial representatives abroad have been overwhelmed with appeals for aid. There is a veritable army of stranded citizens who lack the wherewithal to get back home. And so the State Department has been impelled to step in and see that they all get transportation on government-operated liners. In bringing them home the government is exercising a legitimate function, but it should not have to respond to the same appeals at the close of next year's tourist season. Intending travelers should take warning from the experience of those who were straggling in foresight last summer.

Will Determines Action.
When a man is instructed by reason: No action will be considered as blameless unless the will was so, for the will the act was directed.
When a man is instructed by experience: The act is the result of the will.
When a man is instructed by nature: The act is the result of the will.

THE LEGION OATMEAL COOKIE

Recipe Submitted by Mrs. Frederick Gehlman, Springfield, Ill., Wins International Contest.

Mrs. Frederick Gehlman of Springfield, Ill., presents the national cookie to the country.

Of the 400 recipes which have been pouring into national headquarters of the American Legion during the past two months, the Gehlman "Oatmeal Cookie" has been selected to fill the jars in military hospitals throughout the United States.

Although no prize whatever was offered in this unique contest, recipes came in from every state in the Union and from Hawaii, Alaska, Canada and Paris besides. So it was really an international contest, but the winner hailed from our own Middle West.

The judges selected Mrs. Gehlman's cookie recipe for use in the hospitals, because it best combines food value with little fat content. It makes a mighty good tasting cookie, too. Here it is:

2 cupsful sugar 1 cupful raisins (cut with scissors)

3 cupsful flour 1 cupful lard or butter

1 teaspoonful soda 1 cupful sour milk

1 teaspoonful baking powder 1 egg (well beaten)

3 cupsful rolled oats (ground)

Process: Flour the raisins. Cream the fat in a mixing bowl, adding the sugar gradually. Add the egg, then the milk, then the dry ingredients after sifting them together, then the oats, and lastly the floured raisins. Using a teaspoon, put onto a greased and floured baking sheet. Put into a fairly hot oven (350 degrees) and leave 10 to 15 minutes.

Mrs. W. J. Marks of Indianapolis, widely recognized domestic science expert, acted as judges for the contest. They selected as an alternate to the Gehlman hospital cookie, another "oatmeal cookie" which they would recommend for general use. It contains a larger percentage of fat and no milk. Mrs. A. O. Wiggins, Lima, Ohio, sent it in.

The vote gave Mrs. Mary B. Snodgrass of Highland Park, Mich., second ranking without a rival. She sent in an "orange cookie" recipe.

The judges selected as the third ranking recipe a "cream cookie" with small fat content, sent in by Miss Mary E. Robinson, Walla Walla, Washington.

Mrs. Herbert Pinnell of Indianapolis is shown mixing the dough for the National Cookie. She was one of the class of judges and—secret—she hasn't been mixing dough for husband Pinnell so very long.

WETS SCORE BIG GAINS

New York, Nov. 8.—The "wets" scored big gains throughout the nation in the general Democratic victory which swept over the country in yesterday's election. In Illinois on the referendum for the restoration of beer and light wines the majority will probably run to 500,000. Massachusetts in voting on the proposal recorded its verdict very strongly against the drastic dry regime as it now stands. In Ohio, the resolution to restore light wines and beer is still in doubt. New York elected many "wets" while the results in New Jersey were distinctly "wet."

DEMOCRATS SWEEP EN-DANGERS REP. CONTROL

New York, Nov. 8.—The magnitude of the Democratic nationwide sweep became fully apparent as fairly complete returns showed the staggering figures pointing to a Democratic landslide and which some of President Harding's closest political and personal friends say will endanger the Republican control of the next Congress, especially in the face of the reduced Republican majority in the Senate.

The overwhelming Democratic vote in New York state and the continued Democratic gains seen all over the country will generally change the entire complexion of the nation's political bearing, it was stated by close observers of conditions nationally.

Women Begin Fight To Limit All Divorce

Federation of Women's Clubs To Go To Congress for Uniform Laws --- Now Drawing Bill.

By Lottie Stringfellow Reed
Press Chairman, General Federation of Women's Clubs.
(Written for the United Press.)

Washington, Nov. 8.—The General Federation of Women's Clubs, after long denouncing lax marriage and divorce laws, are prepared for a final fight for better and uniform laws at the hands of Congress.

The legislative chairman of the federation, Mrs. Edward Franklin White, of Indiana, is now preparing a bill which will be pushed with all the power held by the federation.

Under the proposed law, marriage will be made more difficult and divorce may be granted only on one of five grounds—unfaithfulness, cruel and inhuman treatment, abandonment for one year, incurable insanity and conviction for an infamous crime. But once granted in one State under Mrs. White's bill, the divorce would be good in every State in the Union.

Mrs. White, who is deputy attorney general of the State of Indiana and an able lawyer, was authorized by the General Federation of Women's Clubs to draft the bill following the Federation's endorsement of the principle of a national uniform marriage and divorce at its last biennial convention.

Constitutional Amendment.
It is possible, that, to secure a national law on the subject, it will be necessary to secure first an amendment to the Constitution. Mrs. White is also looking after this and upon recommendation of influential Senators who have promised to push the bill is preparing also an amendment to be introduced simultaneously with them for countless millions of others.

DRAMATIC CLASSES BEING PLANNED FOR INSTITUTE

The three-weeks dramatic institute planned by Community Service is going to be a splendid thing for the entire town.

It will be an intensive course in amateur theatricals with the most thorough practical instruction in all the details of putting on a show—casting, coaching, scenery, costume and the like. Mrs. Hanley does this constantly over a large area with the very greatest success and Clearfield is accordingly most fortunate in having this opportunity of taking the work under her. Registration is entirely free and any number can be accommodated as Mrs. Hanley has conducted institutes with enrollments of several hundreds.

The focus of the whole course will be a play or evening of one-act plays the production of which will be the text of the classes and in which all the students will have some part, whether in the cast, preparing scenery, stage management or any of the essentials. All organizations who have or intend to give amateur plays will be able to have just the professional coaching they need.

Darkness Was Night to Chickens.

Chickens are sensible the world around. Over in Australia and New Zealand, not long ago, they went to roost when a total eclipse of the sun came on. The eclipse started in the forenoon and it doubtless seemed a short working day to the mystified poultry. Theirs not to question why, however, theirs but to go to roost as well-behaved and healthy fowls had been accustomed ever to do.

When Your Hack Saw Breaks.
If the blade in the hacksaw breaks two or three inches from the frame, it can still be utilized. Hold the blade in the flame of a blow torch, or otherwise heat it, and while still warm drill a hole through it; this can be done with a hand drill. The blade can then be replaced in the adjustable saw frame, and it will be ready for use.

FORTY-EIGHT MEN GO TO TRIAL FOR MINE MASSACRE

Attempt Will Be Made To Convict Alleged Murderers of Herrin Mine Strike Breakers.

70 MEN INVOLVED

Marion, Ill., Nov. 8. (United Press)—Forty-eight men, charged with murder in connection with the Herrin strip mine massacre last June were scheduled to go on trial here today.

On the outcome of the trial will hang the fate of seventy-seven men who were indicted by the grand jury which investigated the killings. Careful preparations were made to guard the court against any demonstration by the friend of the accused as feeling is running high in this mining community against the prosecutors.

The prosecution is in charge of Attorney Delos Duty, assisted by Attorney General Brundage and a corps of assistants from the attorney general's office in Springfield. Attorney hired by the United Mine Workers of America will have charge of the defense. Circuit Judge Hartwell will preside.

Twenty-three men were killed in the massacre on June 22. All were employed at a strip mine about two miles from Herrin as strike breakers. The mine had been opened during the strike of bituminous coal miners, in violation of an agreement which had been entered into by the mine operators and union officials that no attempt would be made to work while the walkout was in progress. The mine was barricaded and armed with machine guns.

The trouble started on June 21, when the union miners held a mass meeting in a dense woods to decide what action to take to close the mine after protests to the company officials had failed to get results.

As the meeting was in progress, a truck guarded by three men with high powered rifles, loaded down with supplies for the men working in the barricaded mine, roared down the road passed the union meeting.

Say Shots Were Fired.
Miners claimed that no effort was made to molest the truck. The men on the truck declared shots were fired at them from the miners meeting and they returned the fire. Two miners in the crowd were killed. No one on the truck was hurt.

Incensed by the killing of strikers, the mob surrounded the strip mine after an all night vigil. The strike breakers led by Supt. McDowell, a ripple, left the mine under a flag of truce, expecting a safe passage to a railroad station.

The strike sympathizers, after escorting the strike breakers down the road a short distance, opened fire on the prisoners. The men were told to "run for it" across a field and as they fled for their lives, they were mowed down by fire from the mob's ranks.

Local authorities showed little desire to prosecute the guilty. A coroner's jury, plainly composed of union sympathizers, returned a verdict blaming the employers who attempted to operate the mines for the slaying.

A widespread movement among chamber of commerce and other business organizations to force a prosecution, resulted in Attorney General Brundage assuming charge of the investigation. A grand jury was summoned and the indictments followed. All of the seventy-seven men indicted have arrested with the exception of a half dozen who are supposed to have fled the country.

America's Pipe Lines.
At one time or another almost every barrel of oil produced in the United States travels through a pipe line. The flow of oil in the fifty thousand miles of pipe line never stops. Different grades of oil are separated from one another by "headers," which are merely partitions of water three feet long.

Spaniards and Mahogany.
From the day of the earliest settlements in America the Spaniards used mahogany. They utilized it for building ships as early as 1521, and until 1540, when the first allusion to the kind of wood is made by Cortez in connection with further voyages of discovery after the conquest of Mexico.

BRIEF BIOGRAPHIES OF SUCCESSFUL CANDIDATES IN THIS STATE

DAVID AIKENS REED

Major Reed was the second youngest senator when he was appointed Aug. 8 of this year to the United States Senate, all the vacancy caused by the death of William C. Crow. It was said that he was regarded in senatorial circles in Washington, generally cool to newcomers, as one of the most promising young men who have come up to the United States Senate in years. Reed had previously won the Republican nomination in the Spring primaries by the impressive majority of nearly seven hundred thousand.

Reed was born in Pittsburgh 42 years ago. He received his education at Princeton and the Law Department of the University of Pittsburgh. He is a member of the bar in the law. His father, Judge James H. Reed, law partner of former United States Senator Philander C. Knox. He is known as a keen lawyer and brilliant speaker.

Reed served in France as a major in the 31st Field Artillery. He was awarded the Cross of the Legion of Honor by France for his war service. He is the second veteran of the World War to take a seat in the Senate.

The Fatality of Falling.
Topping the list of accidents is injury by falling and falls from steep ladders lead all the others. It is generally thought that the automobile is responsible for most accidents, but there are many different causes which claim more victims than the auto. While 67 persons are killed in auto accidents, 89 are burned to death, 68 on railroads, 111 by falls, 68 by drowning, 26 in mines and 34 asphyxiated.

Prose.
I should be sorely afraid to live my life without God's presence, but to feel he is by my side just now as much as you are, that is the very joy of my heart.—Tennyson.

Proper Test of Book.
Do not believe that a book is good, if in reading it thou dost not become more contented with thy existence, if it does not arouse in thee most generous feelings.—Gautier.

Candid Information.
Don't worry about your liver trouble, you can live to be seventy years with it. And as to the leaking heart, you can carry that around easily until you're eighty, but a kidney disease, that's worse. It's likely bring you to the grave inside of a year.

GIFFORD PINCHOT

Gifford Pinchot won the Republican nomination for governor in the Spring primaries over Attorney General George E. Alter, the candidate of the Republican organization. He resigned as Commissioner of Forestry of Pennsylvania at the beginning of his primary campaign.

Pinchot is 57 years of age. He was born Aug. 11, 1865 in Connecticut. He graduated from Yale and studied forestry in France, Germany, Switzerland and Austria. After completing his preparatory studies Pinchot became actively engaged in forestry and conservation work, serving as Chief Forester of the United States and later as Commissioner of Forestry of Pennsylvania. While at head of United States Forest Service he became involved in the famous Ballinger controversy over Alaskan natural resources.

Pinchot married Miss Cornelia Elizabeth Bryce in 1914. They have one son.

Pinchot was an active member of the Roosevelt section of the Republican party. In 1914 he ran for United States Senator in Pennsylvania on the Progressive ticket, being defeated by Boies Penrose.

The forester, as he is familiarly known, was an intimate friend of the late Theodore Roosevelt. Roosevelt said of him in his autobiography, "I believe it but just to say that among the many, many public officials who under my administration rendered literally invaluable service to the people of the United States, he, on the whole, stood first."

Avoid Breaks.

"You can often mend broken dishes and broken friendships, mend 'em pretty good," said a wise old woman; "but they are never just the same again—the place where the break was is sure to show. Anybody that cares as much for chins and friendships as I do will be careful in handling both of 'em."

To Clean Glass Vases.
Egg shells are not only useful to set the coffee with but shaken round in the glass vases of summer time will help to keep them looking clean and sparkling—especially at the bottom where sediment collects.

Another Nature Fake.
Exchange—The bride's father, born 82 years ago with long white beard and venerable mien, led her to the altar.—Boston Evening Transcript

GEORGE WHARTON PEPPER

George Wharton Pepper was appointed United States Senator by Governor Sprout on January 10, 1922 to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Boies Penrose. In the primaries last Spring he was nominated as Republican candidate for the position by a plurality of 241,269.

Pepper was born in Philadelphia 55 years ago. He attended the College and Law School of the University of Pennsylvania where he was well known as an athlete. He early won a reputation as a lawyer and became nationally prominent in his profession.

He has been active throughout his career in his interest in educational reforms, in public affairs, in charities and in church work. He attracted attention before the World War by his devotion to the cause of national preparedness.

Pepper never held a governmental position until he was appointed Senator by Governor Sprout. He is married and has three children.

GIRLS! GO IN FOR POLITICS! ADVISES WOMAN LEADER

GIRLS! GO IN FOR POLITICS!
By JOSEPHINE VAN DE GRIFT
SEA Service Staff Writer.

San Francisco, N. Y., Nov. 4.—To the young woman in search of a career there comes a suggestion: Go in for politics! Be a better politician than you are in your community and try to accomplish more civic good.

The suggestion comes straight from Mrs. Charles H. Sabin, president of the Women's National Republican Club, an ardent worker in the struggle for suffrage and now an important factor in national politics.

"Go in for politics," she urges. "Make a career of it as you would of art or music. The opportunities are boundless. The United States has had only two women congressmen. The field of diplomacy has only just been opened up by the appointment of the first woman to a place in an American embassy."

Most Attractive Field for Women.
"There is no more attractive field in the world today for a woman than politics. She needs only one investment—her desire to be of service. And her returns—in prestige, in influence, in the knowledge of service rendered—are enormous."

The picture which Mrs. Sabin draws is a glowing one. The ardor thus aroused, however, is apt to be damped by the rigid course of training which she lays down for the woman political aspirant.

"A woman must train herself for politics," she maintains, "just as thoroughly as she would for any other career. And she must work from the bottom up. This means doing the most menial things that come to her hand."

"I should say to the young woman who is contemplating a political career, first, take a course in elementary law study civics. Know all about your municipal, county, state and federal government and the persons taking part in it."

Start at the Bottom.
"Then run for the lowest office there is—in the city, a captaincy of a district, in the county, a membership on the county committee. This means, in plain speaking, a house-to-house canvass and delivering the votes.

"If you make good in this line runs straight from an associate leadership of the district or a vice chairmanship of the county committee to a place in the State Assembly. And from here—if you have demonstrated your fitness—the line runs straight to the highest position you are qualified to take."

The daughter of Paul Morton, at one time a member of Roosevelt's cabinet, Mrs. Sabin grew up in an atmosphere of politics and since she was 12 years old she has missed but one national political convention. She has been a delegate to every state convention since women had the vote. She was one of the organizers of the Women's National Republican Club which she served first as vice president and is now serving as president.

HOME TALENT CARNIVAL WINS

Legion Post of Vicksburg, Miss., Raises More Than $5,000 for Home for Organization.

More than $5,000 was obtained by Allein Post No. 3 of the American Legion at Vicksburg, Miss., by a carnival put on by home talent recently, assuring the post of a Legion home in Vicksburg.

All of the shows and booths were built by Legionnaires with the exception of those operated by the Rotarians, Kiwanians and Knights of Columbus, which organizations built their own ducking tank, show and dance platform, respectively. Every organization in the city was asked to conduct a booth or show of some kind, using its own emblem or insignia and name, paying its expenses out of the money taken in and turning the profits over to Allein post.

The Board of Trade, Chamber of Commerce, Civic League, League of Women Voters, Rotary club, Exchange club, Kiwanis club, Knights of Columbus, Masonic club, Jewish club, Vicksburg Shrine club, Italian Social club, Elks, Woodmen of the World, Loyal Order of Moose, Daughters of the Confederacy, the American Legion auxiliary, Voltaire Locale No. 191, de la Société des 40 Hommes et 8 Chevaux were among the organizations using their own members as workers and performers.

A pretty girl and ugly man contest was held. It was a great community entertainment. All profits stayed in the city to go into a civic improvement fund. There were no sore spots after it was over, as is the case too often when a professional carnival company uses the Legion name to make a success of such an affair. Mayor Hayes of Vicksburg had this to say of it:

"Not one incident that would mar the pleasure of anyone occurred during the five nights. Everybody wanted to help make the carnival a success and I never saw a happier community in my life. Vicksburg is 100 per cent for the American Legion."

NOW 82, AIDED IN TWO WARS

Oldest Member of Paris American Legion Post Auxiliary, Awarded Two Medals by Government.

Mrs. Emily C. Hellig scraped lint for the wounded soldiers of the Union army during the Civil war and for more than three years during the World war worked in the surgical dressing room of the American Ambulance hospital at Neuilly, France. She is the oldest member of the American Legion auxiliary to Paris post, her son, Sterling Hellig, author and newspaper man, having served with the American army during the Civil war.

During the Civil war Mrs. Hellig took part in the great sanitary fairs at Philadelphia when ladies gave their sheets, tablecloths and napkins from which the lint was unravelled and rolled into tons of bandages. There were no gauze compresses in those days. These last, sixty years after her first war experience, she made at Neuilly. For her work from 1915 to 1918 she was awarded two medals by the French government.

She was eighty-two last April and a recent letter to Mrs. Gilbert Jones, president of the Paris post auxiliary, she said it was a joy to have been associated with "those noble American women." Mrs. Hellig was born in Wilkesbarre, Pa. She was a sister of Rear Admiral George F. Kuntz, U. S. N., retired, who died a few months ago. Admiral Kuntz was with Farragut in his attacks on the forts along the Mississippi river, but returned to active duty with the World war.

EIGHTY MEN TOTAL NUMBER KILLED IN SPANGLER BLOWUP

One Hundred Twelve Were In Mine When Explosion Occurred Monday Morning.

32 WERE RESCUED

Spangler, Pa., Nov. 7.—The Reilly Coal Company mine, wrecked by a gas explosion yesterday morning, was cleared of its dead today.

Late this afternoon rescue crews brought out five bodies, believed to be the last in the workings. This brought the total of known dead to 80. Thirty-two miners were rescued.

Officials of the company declared that a recheck of their reports made it practically certain that 112 men were in the mine when the blast took place. The total of listed survivors includes six miners who were in the cage when the flood of gas and smoke issued into the mouth of the shaft. The total dead include three miners who were rescued alive, but who failed to regain consciousness.

Further search of the headings was made today. Mine officials and rescue men realizing the possibilities that one or two men might have entered the mine yesterday without reporting to their boss, made diligent search throughout all headings. All miners living, however, have been accounted for.

The quiet precision that marked the removal of the corpses to the morgue was evident tonight as preparations for the funeral got under way. Identified bodies were removed as quickly as claimed. Company officials notified widows and relatives that they would take charge of funeral arrangements if desired. Preliminary to an investigation to determine, if possible, cause of the explosion, mine inspectors spent considerable time in the workings today. This investigation confirmed declarations previously made by company officials that the men who escaped owe their lives to the fact that the force of the explosion found a double outlet.

One theory advanced is that possibly the gas was ignited by an open lamp. The flame roared out through the fan house while the gas and smoke traveled through the main headings in the other direction and shot to the surface through the chute. The consequence was that little debris was dislodged and miners who were conscious were able to scatter towards the fresh air zone at the sixth heading where they were found by rescuers.

It was admitted also that the casualty list would have been much greater had the explosion occurred on any week day but Monday. On other days 200 or more men usually reported for work. Some miners for various reasons do not work on Monday.

Unusual order was maintained around the morgue today, where more than 60 bodies lay on a row of cots. Red Cross and Salvation Army are co-operating with the committees of Spangler women who not only visited the homes of all the victims to comfort the dependents but also took charge of men and women who became hysterical at the morgue. Officials and mine officials declared that this phase of the relief program was conducted with impressive success. Most of the relief workers left Spangler tonight but the rescue cars sent here by the Bureau of Mines will remain until tomorrow.

—AT THE—
HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM

Under the Auspices of the Clearfield High School Athletic Association

Will occur the personal appearance in this city of BYRON G. HARLAN, whom you have heard many times on phonograph records. Mr. Harlan, with his pleasant personality and superior voice, affords the greatest pleasure by his unique character songs, impersonations and duets. He brings with him a company of talented artists: Miss Beth Hamilton is an American Violinist who always arouses enthusiasm from critics and audiences. Her training has been with the most eminent masters of America and Europe. She always reaches her audience with the first draw of her bow. Armstrong, "The Man of Mystery," one of the most versatile, refined and original entertainers, is an evening's entertainment in himself and must be seen and heard to be fully appreciated. Magic is an art that sometimes instructs, often amuses and always entertains. Miss Mabel H. Loomis is the pianist and accompanist and, although equipped with the technic of a virtuoso, she uses it only as a means of expressing; this she combines with a musical touch and artistic temperament in such a way as to make piano playing an art. Miss Loomis also renders a number of delightful vocal selections. Remember, our own favorite,

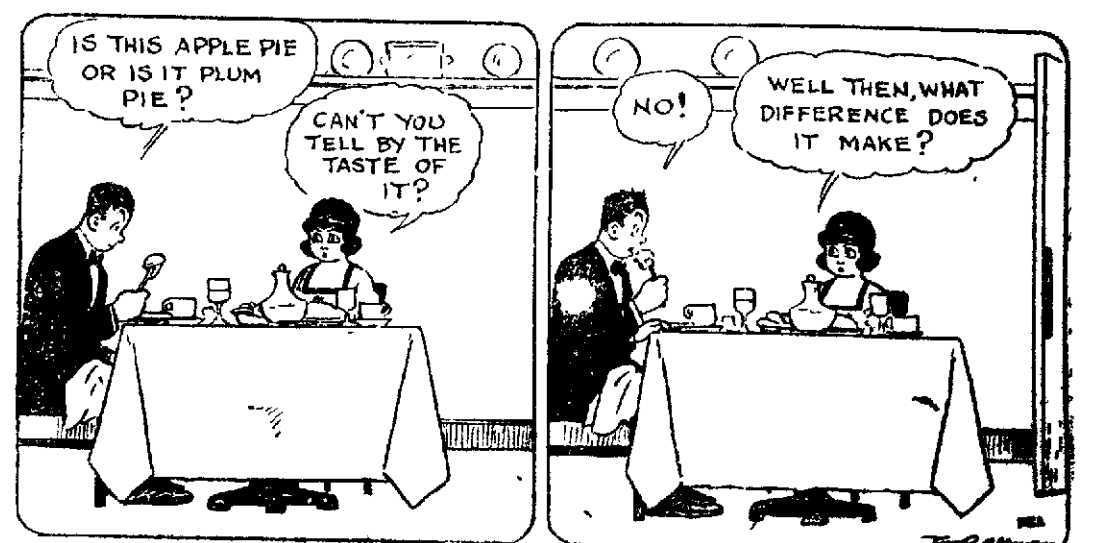

Miss Mary Mitchell, will make a record that you will see made and hear played on Friday. Get your tickets at Sheeder's Music House or from the High School students. Adults, $1.00; Children, 50c.

Earnestness Welcomes.

One gets very tired of chatter sometimes. And when someone comes who is thoughtful, who is earnest, who talks that he may reveal something worth while, because he has some treasure through which the world may profit, then what a difference. How the mind throws off its staleness and freshness under the wind that cuts, maybe, as it heals. How the soul refreshes itself, how the heart takes courage and the spirit rises to meet the message.—Exchange.

Milford, Pa., Nov. 8.—Gifford Pinchot, Republican candidate for Governor, is spending the day before election among the home folks in Pike county. The illustration shows Mr. and Mrs. Pinchot, and their son, Gifford, Jr., on the lawn of "Grey Towers," the Pinchot home here just on the outskirts of town. Full of "pep," Mr. Pinchot returned home yesterday from Scranton, where he completed, Saturday night, his epochal state-wide tour into every county of Pennsylvania. Today the Governor-to-be is visiting his neighbors in Pike county, and tomorrow he and Mrs. Pinchot will vote here. "Sure, I'm going to win, and by a handsome majority," said Mr. Pinchot. And the next "First Lady of Pennsylvania" is equally as confident. Even "Giffie" is smiling over the prospect.

How Schooner Got Name.
How did the name "schooner" originate? It was about the year 1713 and at Gloucester the first vessel of the schooner type was launched. A tradition persists that enthusiastic at the speed made on her trial trip a boy exclaimed, "See how she scoons!" "A schooner let her be!" agreed the builder, hearing the remark. This is a probable story; the word schoon in ancient New England meant a flat stone to skip along the water.

A Nervous Woman

A Middle-aged Woman's Advice to Girls, Wives and Mothers.
It is Most for You if You are a Nervous Woman.

Meadville, Pa.—"As a young girl and in later years as wife and mother, I have been greatly benefited by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Remedy and Golden Medical Discovery, which I would take whenever I feel nervous, or have any of the many ailments which only the highest quality of health can give. I have only the highest praise for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Remedy and Golden Medical Discovery. —Mrs. Rhea Foster, of Meadville. A beautiful woman in every well woman. Your health is so vital to you. If you are nervous, go to your neighborhood drug store and obtain these tablets in tablets or liquid. Write Dr. Pierce, President of the Hotel du Lac, Meadville, Pa. for free confidential advice."

HOW TWO WOMEN ESCAPED OPERATIONS

Doctor Advised Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Happy Results in Both Cases

St. Joseph, Missouri.—"Both of my sides ached and hurt me so that I could not move or do any of my work. There was heavy pressure and pains through my lower organs and the doctor told me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for these troubles. He said I had this one chance, and if the Vegetable Compound did not help me nothing but an operation would do. After taking several bottles I felt it was helping me and now I am able to do my own work. If my testimony will help others I shall be glad for them to read it and hope your Vegetable Compound will do them as much good as it did me." —Mrs. Wm. LOCKMAN, 513 N. 4th St., St. Joseph, Mo.

White Plains, N. Y.—"I had such a pain that I could hardly walk and the doctor said that I needed an operation. I was sick for a year before I started taking your medicine and I could not work. I saw your advertisement in a little book and that is how I came to take Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine. I have been taking the Vegetable Compound and Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine, also Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and the capsules and prescription recommended. I am doing all my work and have gained twenty pounds. I am taking the medicines still, but I feel fine. You have my permission to use this letter for the good of others." —Mrs. MARY MARK, 37 Hamilton Ave., White Plains, N. Y.

Some female troubles may through neglect reach a stage when an operation is necessary. But most of the common ailments are not the surgical ones; they are not caused by serious displacements, tumors, or growths, although the symptoms may appear the same.

When disturbing ailments first appear, take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve the present distress and prevent more serious troubles. Many letters have been received from women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after operations have been advised by attending physicians.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women" will be sent you free upon request. Write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts. This book contains valuable information.

Democrats Make Gains in Jersey.
Trenton, N. J., Nov. 8.—The Democrats have gained six seats in the House of Representatives according to returns available thus far today. This will cut the Republican majority of 7 in the Congressional delegation down to one.

Governor Edward L. Edwards was elected United States Senator over Joseph S. Frelinghuysen, a close personal friend of Harding. George Silver was elected Governor over Gov. Ruyon of Trenton, who was trying for re-election.

Republican Majority of Eight in Senate.

New York, N. Y., Nov. 8.—On the basis of incomplete returns from Michigan it was stated that Charles E. Townsend, Rep., was leading Woodbridge N. Ferris, Dem., for the United States Senatorship. This will make a Republican majority in the next Senate of 8.

With Townsend added, the present status of the Senate will be Republicans, 54; Democrats, 42.

BITTER FIGHT WILL BE MADE AGAINST ADMINISTRATION ON SHIP SUBSIDY

By LAURENCE M. BENEDICT

(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, Nov. 8.—Having been given the benefit of the most intensive advertising campaign ever put on by any agency of the government, outside of the Liberty loan days, the administration ship subsidy measure will be back on the doorstep of Congress for a showdown when the expected special session starts the latter part of November.

Defeat of the measure would constitute the worst possible blow to the administration, as President Harding stands as the foremost champion of subsidy legislation. Seeing the bitter opposition to the bill in his own party, the President gladly threw all his influence behind the bill, thus making it an out-and-out test of his leadership over Congress.

The fight comes first in the House. The plan is to put the subsidy bill to a vote there in the early days of the special session, scheduled to start November 20, and not to try for Senate action until the regular term beginning in December.

Since Congress adjourned in September, a nation-wide campaign has been waged on behalf of the subsidy. Under the direction of Chairman A. B. Lasker of the U. S. Shipping Board, former head of a big Chicago advertising concern, speakers have been sent into all sections of the country and newspaper offices everywhere have been flooded with propaganda to point out the needs of a subsidy for the American shipping interests.

Sell Idea to People.
Lasker assured President Harding he would "sell" the subsidy to the American people by the time Congress returned, so that Congressmen could not refuse to vote for the bill.

The subsidy, the country has been told, is imperative if the United States is to have a merchant marine to compete for world trade, and to back up the navy in event of war.

Success of the subsidy appears to be very much in doubt. The measure has gained many new supporters since liquor was ruled off American ships, and Lasker's publicity drive has netted results, but even now, with the time for a test near at hand, the bill is far from being "sold."

The belief is that Republican leaders can drive the subsidy bill through the House, by taking it up under a rule allowing limited debate and no amendments from the floor. However, there may be a different story in the Senate. Senators opposed to the bill have it within their power to talk the subsidy to death if they see they cannot defeat it in a vote.

Administration leaders emphatically deny reports that there have been "trades" between friends of the subsidy, advocates of acceptance of the Ford offer to Muscle Shoals, and the farm bloc, whereby the subsidy will be slowed to go through. The subsidy, they declare, will stand or fall purely on its own merits.

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Try this! Brush Sage Tea and Sulphur Compound through your hair taking one strand at a time

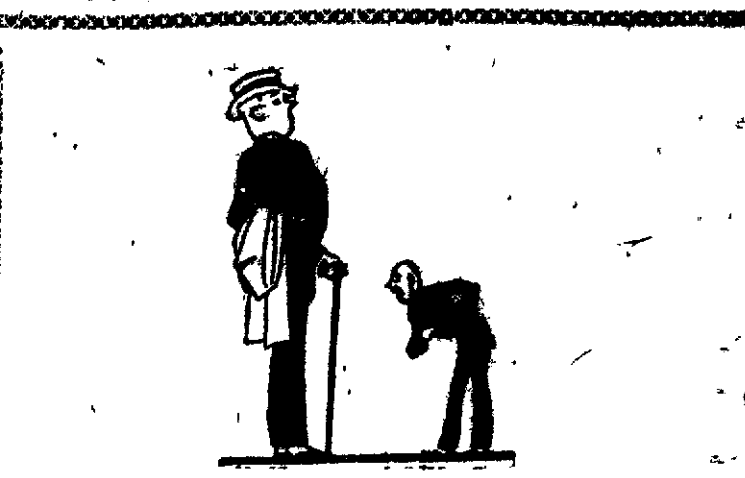

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and trouble some. At little cost you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears and, after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully darkened glossy and luxuriant. Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound and look years younger.

DRINK MORE PASTEURIZED MILK

Drinking milk is one thing and drinking safe milk is another. You may drink milk and it will be a detriment because of the danger lurking in the germs that are so easily carried in the unpasteurized product.

When you drink pasteurized milk that has all the nutriment that is in any milk plus the safety that comes with milk that has been thru the pasteurization process.

CLEARFIELD didn't just happen

Neither did it become an important industrial and farming center by accident.

For prosperity comes only through careful and conservative planning.

Clearfield with its mines, its factories and the fertile fields surrounding it holds a high place in the industrial world.

Foresight—and a broad vision—have brought this about.

Behind Clearfield's present Bell service is an engineering staff whose function is planning for the future telephone needs of the city.

These engineers are just as much concerned about the present or prospective subscriber here, as they are with anyone else in the United States. No problem is so small that it does not merit their attention and no difficulty has yet been too large for them to overcome.

For they are members of the Bell organization.

And all Bell people have a very real interest in the community.

Their ideal is to merit the approbation of their fellow citizens whom they serve.

They aim to give the best of service and to give it with courtesy for they know that courtesy pays.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

The following from the pen of Emerson Hough, which appeared in Monday's Philadelphia Public Ledger is well worth reading:

There are some two millions of acres of public lands open for homestead entry today, but even in the desert regions, where the homestead is of 640 acres instead of the conventional quarter section, there is not much land really worth filing on unless the "settler" intends to sell out as soon as he gets his patent. The average homestead in the West today is only a legal excuse for starving a woman to death. The Land Office figures of acreage of remaining public lands means nothing at all. If we give our soldiers lands, we shall have to reclaim them from swamp or desert. That costs more than $1.25 an acre.

The dry farmer, the little cowman, the stock homesteader, the nester or the would-be sheep man too often is obliged to give up the fight. When he does, some big fellow is always ready to buy him out and throw his patch under the big fence. Today the big cow man does not include under his fences any land to which he does not have title in fee or lease. The time when the cattle barons hung wide their wire, including school lands, non-resident lands, unpatented lands and everything else passed over Grover Cleveland ordered the illegal fences out. That was a victory for the "nester" the "little fellow." Today, in very many cases, the little fellow, after getting title to his modest tract, is obliged to sell. So now we have the final victory of the big fellow, who can operate legally on a large scale and so make it pay.

If the owner of one of these great tracts of land is a real conservationist, he has an opportunity to do good for the disappearing wild animals. The first thing the nester did was to kill the last buffalo or antelope or deer within reach of his land. He is still trying to do that. He is still bringing pressure on the Legislatures and the Game Commissions of the West—the latter usually "rank" political machines—to open up the seasons on big game, to make them longer instead of shorter and to allow the killing of more game rather than less.

Finally the pressure brought on the Game Commission is not in vain. We hear the old talk of "increasing

FLOUTING FASHION

While kings and emperors were falling and thrones and crowns were tumbling in the dust one autocracy still retained a plentitude of power and continued to exact the fealty, homage and humble submission of its subjects—the autocracy of fashion. Entrrenched, as it was, behind the traditions of centuries of absolute dominion, Pope and prelate, sage and philosopher, moralist and physician had denounced its tyranny in vain. Through all opposition fashion reigned supreme and defied the even tenor of its way, smiling and unheeding, it came so cunningly erected in generation after generation of female hearts.

But lo! even in this hitherto all-conquering domain the billows of revolt are now heard and the flag of rebellion is hoisted by hundreds of willing hands. All the pother and disturbance arose from the decree which abolished the short skirt. Robes of trailing garments, dust and germ laden, or else ragged with mud, rose before the mental gaze of the unaccustomed victims; visions, too, of trim and shapely limbs no longer revealed to view and admiration and wasting, as it were, their charms and sweetness on the desert air of swathe-draperies.

But from an unexpected quarter a tocsin sounded a clarion call to arms in resistance of the ukase from Paris. The women of New York met and resolved against it.

All the ministers of the government of fashion rose in might and smote the rebels hip and thigh—or rather side and calf—and a rout seemed to be in progress. But the stentorian tones of feminine Gotham found an echo in a heart, and soon swelled to a diapason that, like the rattled farmer's shot, was heard around the world. It was heard even as far away as Paris is, and the latest report is that the arbiters of the destiny of clothes have admitted defeat and abandoned their campaign for the elimination of the abbreviated skirt.

NO FAIR FOR PHILADELPHIA

The project for a world fair at Philadelphia to celebrate 150 years of American independence in 1926 is on the verge of abandonment. There will be regret throughout Pennsylvania, for all the state would have a share in the pride and glory of a great exhibition of peace, commerce, manufacture, art and every civilized attainment. Yet, perhaps, it is well. Many obstacles were in the way.

Here is a suggestion for Philadelphia: If the fair is not to be held, let 1926 be designated a "Pilgrimage Year." Let it be observed as a year in which all roads shall lead to Independence Hall, to Congress Hall, to Carpenter's Hall, to Franklin's grave, to the Betsy Ross House, to the Norris home in Germantown, and to the countless other shrines of history which have given Philadelphia a high place in the reverence of patriotic citizens throughout the land.

A visit to the cradle of Liberty during a normal year may indeed be more profitable than when attention is certain to be diverted by the glamour of a midway and vast exhibition places.

BRINGING HOME THE "BROKE"

Among the prescribed duties of United States consuls is that of giving assistance to their fellow citizens. To the official embarrassment, this instruction is frequently construed as meaning financial aid—unofficially construed, that is—for there are no public funds at their disposal for this purpose.

During the tourist season just past our diplomatic and commercial representatives abroad have been overwhelmed with appeals for aid. There is a veritable army of stranded citizens who lack the wherewithal to get back home. And so the State Department has been impelled to step in and see that they all get transportation on government-operated liners. In bringing them home the government is exercising a legitimate function, but it should not have to respond to the same appeals at the close of next year's tourist season. Intending travelers should take warning from the experience of those who were straggling in foresight last summer.

Will Determines Action.

When a man is instructed by experience: The act is the result of the will.
When a man is instructed by nature: The act is the result of the will.

THE LEGION OATMEAL COOKIE

Recipe Submitted by Mrs. Frederick Gehlman, Springfield, Ill., Wins International Contest.

Mrs. Frederick Gehlman of Springfield, Ill., presents the national cookie to the country.

Of the 400 recipes which have been pouring into national headquarters of the American Legion during the past two months, the Gehlman "Oatmeal Cookie" has been selected to fill the jars in military hospitals throughout the United States.

Although no prize whatever was offered in this unique contest, recipes came in from every state in the Union and from Hawaii, Alaska, Canada and Paris besides. So it was really an international contest, but the winner hailed from our own Middle West.

The judges selected Mrs. Gehlman's cookie recipe for use in the hospitals, because it best combines food value with little fat content. It makes a mighty good tasting cookie, too. Here it is:

2 cupsful sugar 1 cupful raisins (cut with scissors)

3 cupsful flour 1 cupful lard or butter

1 teaspoonful soda 1 cupful sour milk

1 teaspoonful baking powder 1 egg (well beaten)

3 cupsful rolled oats (ground)

Process: Flour the raisins. Cream the fat in a mixing bowl, adding the sugar gradually. Add the egg, then the milk, then the dry ingredients after sifting them together, then the oats, and lastly the floured raisins. Using a teaspoon, put onto a greased and floured baking sheet. Put into a fairly hot oven (350 degrees) and leave 10 to 15 minutes.

Mrs. W. J. Marks of Indianapolis, widely recognized domestic science expert, acted as judges for the contest. They selected as an alternate to the Gehlman hospital cookie, another "oatmeal cookie" which they would recommend for general use. It contains a larger percentage of fat and no milk. Mrs. A. O. Wiggins, Lima, Ohio, sent it in.

The vote gave Mrs. Mary B. Snodgrass of Highland Park, Mich., second ranking without a rival. She sent in an "orange cookie" recipe.

The judges selected as the third ranking recipe a "cream cookie" with small fat content, sent in by Miss Mary E. Robinson, Walla Walla, Washington.

Mrs. Herbert Pinnell of Indianapolis is shown mixing the dough for the National Cookie. She was one of the class of judges and—secret—she hasn't been mixing dough for husband Pinnell so very long.

Anyone having information concerning Anthony is asked to communicate with Leland M. Beatley, commander of the post, 4112 North Haven street, Toledo, O.

Circumstantial Only.

On the complaint of a farmer, old Ephraim had been haled into court charged with chicken shooting. His lawyer had made a fairly good case for him and for a clincher had the plaintiff recalled, hoping to make him contradict his own testimony.

"See here," he said, scowling savagely, "will you swear that it was Ephraim who shot your chicken?"

"Wal," said the farmer mildly, "I won't swear to it—but I suspect him."

"That's not enough to convict a man. What makes you suspect him?"

"Wal, I saw him in the chicken yard with a gun, then I heard the gun go off, and then I saw him putting the chicken into a bag—and it didn't seem to me sensible to finger the bird committed suicide."—American Legion Weekly.

WETS SCORE BIG GAINS

New York, Nov. 8.—The "wets" scored big gains throughout the nation in the general Democratic victory which swept over the country in yesterday's election. In Illinois on the referendum for the restoration of beer and light wines the majority will probably run to 500,000. Massachusetts in voting on the proposal recorded its verdict very strongly against the drastic dry regime as it now stands. In Ohio, the resolution to restore light wines and beer is still in doubt. New York elected many "wets" while the results in New Jersey were distinctly "wet."

DEMOCRATS SWEEP EN-DANGERS REP. CONTROL

New York, Nov. 8.—The magnitude of the Democratic nationwide sweep became fully apparent as fairly complete returns showed the staggering figures pointing to a Democratic landslide and which some of President Harding's closest political and personal friends say will endanger the Republican control of the next Congress, especially in the face of the reduced Republican majority in the Senate.

The overwhelming Democratic vote in New York state and the continued Democratic gains seen all over the country will generally change the entire complexion of the nation's political bearing, it was stated by close observers of conditions nationally.

And the Clerk Fainted.

Miriam had been sent to the store for several articles. She could not remember but one when she got there, but she walked up to the clerk and said brightly: "Will you please name over all the things you sell to see if I can remember what mother told me to get?"

Women Begin Fight To Limit All Divorce

Federation of Women's Clubs To Go To Congress for Uniform Laws --- Now Drawing Bill.

By Lottie Stringfellow Reed
Press Chairman, General Federation of Women's Clubs.
(Written for the United Press.)

Washington, Nov. 8.—The General Federation of Women's Clubs, after long denouncing lax marriage and divorce laws, are prepared for a final fight for better and uniform laws at the hands of Congress.

The legislative chairman of the federation, Mrs. Edward Franklin White, of Indiana, is now preparing a bill which will be pushed with all the power held by the federation.

Under the proposed law, marriage will be made more difficult and divorce may be granted only on one of five grounds—unfaithfulness, cruel and inhuman treatment, abandonment for one year, incurable insanity and conviction for an infamous crime. But once granted in one State under Mrs. White's bill, the divorce would be good in every State in the Union.

Mrs. White, who is deputy attorney general of the State of Indiana and an able lawyer, was authorized by the General Federation of Women's Clubs to draft the bill following the Federation's endorsement of the principle of a national uniform marriage and divorce at its last biennial convention.

It is possible, that, to secure a national law on the subject, it will be necessary to secure first an amendment to the Constitution. Mrs. White is also looking after this and upon recommendation of influential Senators who have promised to push the bill is preparing also an amendment to be introduced simultaneously with the proposed law.

Some of the salient points in the proposed bill are, according to Mrs. White:

"License to marry must in all cases be secured and must be applied for in the county of the woman's residence, and must be posted two weeks before issue.

Affidavit must be made that no legal impediment exists which includes: existing marriage contract; under age of 18 for the woman and 21 for the man, except upon parent's or guardian's consent; insanity; imbecility; pauperism; epilepsy; tuberculosis or venereal disease; members of different races; relation within certain degree of consanguinity.

A heavy penalty is provided for a marriage license clerk who issues a license in violation of this provision, and also for applicants who make false statements to secure the license and for an officiating person who marries two people without a proper license, or without the presence of two witnesses.

Sixty days must elapse after filing suit for divorce before trial of the case and after granting of divorce an interlocutory decree shall be issued which cannot be made permanent until one year has elapsed, during which time neither party may marry. The court is authorized to make provision for custody and education of children as appear for their best interests.

State federation in each state will be urged to introduce the identical bill in their own state legislatures and to try to secure its passage there. The General Federation of Women's Clubs speaks for 2,000,000 women in the United States and thru them for countless millions of others.

DRAMATIC CLASSES BEING PLANNED FOR INSTITUTE

The three-weeks dramatic institute planned by Community Service is going to be a splendid thing for the entire town.

It will be an intensive course in amateur theatricals with the most thorough practical instruction in all the details of putting on a show—casting, coaching, scenery, costume and the like. Mrs. Hanley does this constantly over a large area with the very greatest success and Clearfield is accordingly most fortunate in having this opportunity of taking the work under her. Registration is entirely free and any number can be accommodated as Mrs. Hanley has conducted institutes with enrollments of several hundreds.

The focus of the whole course will be a play or evening of one-act plays the production of which will be the text of the classes and in which all the students will have some part, whether in the cast, preparing scenery, stage management or any of the essentials. All organizations who have or intend to give amateur plays will be able to have just the professional coaching they need.

Darkness Was Night to Chickens.
Chickens are sensible the world around. Over in Australia and New Zealand, not long ago, they went to roost when a total eclipse of the sun came on. The eclipse started in the forenoon and it doubtless seemed a short working day to the mystified poultry. Theirs not to question why, however, theirs but to go to roost as well-behaved and healthy fowls had been accustomed ever to do.

When Your Hack Saw Breaks.
If the blade in the hacksaw breaks two or three inches from the frame, it can still be utilized. Hold the blade in the flame of a blow torch, or otherwise heat it, and while still warm drill a hole through it; this can be done with a hand drill. The blade can then be replaced in the adjustable saw frame, and it will be ready for use.

FORTY-EIGHT MEN GO TO TRIAL FOR MINE MASSACRE

Attempt Will Be Made To Convict Alleged Murderers of Herrin Mine Strike Breakers.

70 MEN INVOLVED

Marion, Ill., Nov. 8. (United Press)—Forty-eight men, charged with murder in connection with the Herrin strip mine massacre last June were scheduled to go on trial here today.

On the outcome of the trial will hang the fate of seventy-seven men who were indicted by the grand jury which investigated the killings. Careful preparations were made to guard the court against any demonstration by the friend of the accused as feeling is running high in this mining community against the prosecutors.

The prosecution is in charge of Attorney Delos Duty, assisted by Attorney General Brundage and a corps of assistants from the attorney general's office in Springfield. Attorney hired by the United Mine Workers of America will have charge of the defense. Circuit Judge Hartwell will preside.

Twenty-three men were killed in the massacre on June 22. All were employed at a strip mine about two miles from Herrin as strike breakers. The mine had been opened during the strike of bituminous coal miners, in violation of an agreement which had been entered into by the mine operators and union officials that no attempt would be made to work while the walkout was in progress. The mine was barricaded and armed with machine guns.

The trouble started on June 21, when the union miners held a mass meeting in a dense woods to decide what action to take to close the mine after protests to the company officials had failed to get results.

As the meeting was in progress, a truck guarded by three men with high powered rifles, loaded down with supplies for the men working in the barricaded mine, roared down the road passed the union meeting.

Say Shots Were Fired.
Miners claimed that no effort was made to molest the truck. The men on the truck declared shots were fired at them from the miners meeting and they returned the fire. Two miners in the crowd were killed. No one on the truck was hurt.

Incensed by the killing of strikers, the mob surrounded the strip mine after an all night vigil. The strike breakers led by Supt. McDowell, a ripple, left the mine under a flag of truce, expecting a safe passage to a railroad station.

The strike sympathizers, after escorting the strike breakers down the road a short distance, opened fire on the prisoners. The men were told to "run for it" across a field and as they fled for their lives, they were mowed down by fire from the mob's ranks.

Local authorities showed little desire to prosecute the guilty. A coroner's jury, plainly composed of union sympathizers, returned a verdict blaming the employers who attempted to operate the mines for the slaying.

A widespread movement among chamber of commerce and other business organizations to force a prosecution, resulted in Attorney General Brundage assuming charge of the investigation. A grand jury was summoned and the indictments followed. All of the seventy-seven men indicted have arrested with the exception of a half dozen who are supposed to have fled the country.

It is not generally known that wild cats are still found in parts of Scotland and are extremely fierce. They make their homes in rocks and hollow trees. At one time they were found all over England, but, like snakes, they have not been seen in Ireland.

America's Pipe Lines.
At one time or another almost every barrel of oil produced in the United States travels through a pipe line. The flow of oil in the fifty thousand miles of pipe line never stops. Different grades of oil are separated from one another by "headers," which are merely partitions of water three feet long.

Spaniards and Mahogany.
From the day of the earliest settlements in America the Spaniards used mahogany. They utilized it for building ships as early as 1521, and until 1540, when the first allusion to the kind of wood is made by Cortez in connection with further voyages of discovery after the conquest of Mexico.

BRIEF BIOGRAPHIES OF SUCCESSFUL CANDIDATES IN THIS STATE

DAVID AIKENS REED

Major Reed was the second youngest senator when he was appointed Aug. 8 of this year to the United States Senate, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of William C. Crow. It was said that he was regarded in senatorial circles in Washington, generally cool to newcomers, as one of the most promising young men who have come up to the United States Senate in years. Reed had previously won the Republican nomination in the Spring primaries by the impressive majority of nearly seven hundred thousand.

Reed was born in Pittsburgh 42 years ago. He received his education at Princeton and the Law Department of the University of Pittsburgh. He is a member of the bar in the law. His father, Judge James H. Reed, law partner of former United States Senator Philander C. Knox. He is known as a keen lawyer and brilliant speaker.

Reed served in France as a major in the 31st Field Artillery. He was awarded the Cross of the Legion of honor by France for his war service. He is the second veteran of the World War to take a seat in the Senate.

The Fatality of Falling.
Topping the list of accidents is injury by falling and falls from steep ladders lead all the others. It is generally thought that the automobile is responsible for most accidents, but there are many different causes which claim more victims than the auto. While 67 persons are killed in auto accidents, 89 are burned to death, 68 on railroads, 111 by falls, 68 by drowning, 26 in mines and 34 asphyxiated.

Prose.
I should be sorely afraid to live my life without God's presence, but to feel he is by my side just now as much as you are, that is the very joy of my heart.—Tennyson.

Proper Test of Book.
Do not believe that a book is good, if in reading it thou dost not become more contented with thy existence, if it does not arouse in thee most generous feelings.—Gautier.

Candid Information.
Don't worry about your liver trouble, you can live to be seventy years with it. And as to the leaking heart valve, you can carry that around easily until you're eighty, but a kidney disease, that's worse. It's likely bring you to the grave inside of a year.

GIFFORD PINCHOT

Gifford Pinchot won the Republican nomination for governor in the Spring primaries over Attorney General George E. Alter, the candidate of the Republican organization. He resigned as Commissioner of Forestry of Pennsylvania at the beginning of his primary campaign.

Pinchot is 57 years of age. He was born Aug. 11, 1865 in Connecticut. He graduated from Yale and studied forestry in France, Germany, Switzerland and Austria. After completing his preparatory studies Pinchot became actively engaged in forestry and conservation work, serving as Chief Forester of the United States and later as Commissioner of Forestry of Pennsylvania. While at head of United States Forest Service he became involved in the famous Ballinger controversy over Alaskan natural resources.

Pinchot married Miss Cornelia Elizabeth Bryce in 1914. They have one son.

Pinchot was an active member of the Roosevelt section of the Republican party. In 1914 he ran for United States Senator in Pennsylvania on the Progressive ticket, being defeated by Boies Penrose.

The forester, as he is familiarly known, was an intimate friend of the late Theodore Roosevelt. Roosevelt said of him in his autobiography, "I believe it but just to say that among the many, many public officials who under my administration rendered literally invaluable service to the people of the United States, he, on the whole, stood first."

Avoid Breaks.
"You can often mend broken dishes and broken friendships, mend 'em pretty good," said a wise old woman; "but they are never just the same again—the place where the break was is sure to show. Anybody that cares as much for chins and friendships as I do will be careful in handling both of 'em."

To Clean Glass Vases.
Egg shells are not only useful to settle the coffee with but shaken round in the glass vases of summer time will help to keep them looking clean and sparkling—especially at the bottom where sediment collects.

Another Nature Fake.

GEORGE WHARTON PEPPER

George Wharton Pepper was appointed United States Senator by Governor Sprout on January 10, 1922 to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Boies Penrose. In the primaries last Spring he was nominated as Republican candidate for the position by a plurality of 241,269.

Pepper was born in Philadelphia 55 years ago. He attended the College and Law School of the University of Pennsylvania where he was well known as an athlete. He early won a reputation as a lawyer and became nationally prominent in his profession.

He has been active throughout his career in his interest in educational reforms, in public affairs, in charities and in church work. He attracted attention before the World War by his devotion to the cause of national preparedness.

Pepper never held a governmental position until he was appointed Senator by Governor Sprout. He is married and has three children.

HOME TALENT CARNIVAL WINS

Legion Post of Vicksburg, Miss., Raises More Than $5,000 for Home for Organization.

More than $5,000 was obtained by Allein Post No. 3 of the American Legion at Vicksburg, Miss., by a carnival put on by home talent recently, assuring the post of a Legion home in Vicksburg.

All of the shows and booths were built by Legionnaires with the exception of those operated by the Rotarians, Kiwanians and Knights of Columbus, which organizations built their own ducking tank, show and dance platform, respectively. Every organization in the city was asked to conduct a booth or show of some kind, using its own emblem or insignia and name, paying its expenses out of the money taken in and turning the profits over to Allein post.

The Board of Trade, Chamber of Commerce, Civic League, League of Women Voters, Rotary club, Exchange club, Kiwanis club, Knights of Columbus, Masonic club, Jewish club, Vicksburg Shrine club, Italian Social club, Elks, Woodmen of the World, Loyal Order of Moose, Daughters of the Confederacy, the American Legion auxiliary, Voltaire Locale No. 191, de la Société des 40 Hommes et 8 Chevaux were among the organizations using their own members as workers and performers.

A pretty girl and ugly man contest was held. It was a great community entertainment. All profits stayed in the city to go into a civic improvement fund. There were no sore spots after it was over, as is the case too often when a professional carnival company uses the Legion name to make a success of such an affair. Mayor Hayes of Vicksburg had this to say of it:

"Not one incident that would mar the pleasure of anyone occurred during the five nights. Everybody wanted to help make the carnival a success and I never saw a happier community in my life. Vicksburg is 100 per cent for the American Legion."

NOW 82, AIDED IN TWO WARS

Oldest Member of Paris American Legion Post Auxiliary, Awarded Two Medals by Government.

Mrs. Emily C. Hellig scraped lint for the wounded soldiers of the Union army during the Civil war and for more than three years during the World war worked in the surgical dressing room of the American Ambulance hospital at Neuilly, France. She is the oldest member of the American Legion auxiliary to Paris post, her son, Sterling Hellig, author and newspaper man, having served with the American army during the Civil war.

During the Civil war Mrs. Hellig took part in the great sanitary fairs at Philadelphia when ladies gave their sheets, tablecloths and napkins from which the lint was unravelled and rolled into tons of bandages. There were no gauze compresses in those days. These last, sixty years after her first war experience, she made at Neuilly. For her work from 1915 to 1918 she was awarded two medals by the French government.

She was eighty-two last April and a recent letter to Mrs. Gilbert Jones, president of the Paris post auxiliary, she said it was a joy to have been associated with "those noble American women." Mrs. Hellig was born in Wilkesbarre, Pa. She was a sister of Rear Admiral George F. Kuntz, U. S. N., retired, who died a few months ago. Admiral Kuntz was with Farragut in his attacks on the forts along the Mississippi river, but returned to active duty with the World war.

EIGHTY MEN TOTAL NUMBER KILLED IN SPANGLER BLOWUP

One Hundred Twelve Were In Mine When Explosion Occurred Monday Morning.

32 WERE RESCUED

Spangler, Pa., Nov. 7.—The Reilly Coal Company mine, wrecked by a gas explosion yesterday morning, was cleared of its dead today.

Late this afternoon rescue crews brought out five bodies, believed to be the last in the workings. This brought the total of known dead to 80. Thirty-two miners were rescued.

Officials of the company declared that a recheck of their reports made it practically certain that 112 men were in the mine when the blast took place. The total of listed survivors includes six miners who were in the cage when the flood of gas and smoke issued into the mouth of the shaft. The total dead include three miners who were rescued alive, but who failed to regain consciousness.

Further search of the headings was made today. Mine officials and rescue men realizing the possibilities that one or two men might have entered the mine yesterday without reporting to their boss, made diligent search throughout all headings. All miners living, however, have been accounted for.

The quiet precision that marked the removal of the corpses to the morgue was evident tonight as preparations for the funeral got under way. Identified bodies were removed as quickly as claimed. Company officials notified widows and relatives that they would take charge of funeral arrangements if desired. Preliminary to an investigation to determine, if possible, cause of the explosion, mine inspectors spent considerable time in the workings today. This investigation confirmed declarations previously made by company officials that the men who escaped owe their lives to the fact that the force of the explosion found a double outlet.

One theory advanced is that possibly the gas was ignited by an open lamp. The flame roared out through the fan house while the gas and smoke traveled through the main headings in the other direction and shot to the surface through the chute. The consequence was that little debris was dislodged and miners who were conscious were able to scatter towards the fresh air zone at the sixth heading where they were found by rescuers.

It was admitted also that the casualty list would have been much greater had the explosion occurred on any week day but Monday. On other days 200 or more men usually reported for work. Some miners for various reasons do not work on Monday.

Unusual order was maintained around the morgue today, where more than 60 bodies lay on a row of cots. Red Cross and Salvation Army are co-operating with the committees of Spangler women who not only visited the homes of all the victims to comfort the dependents but also took charge of men and women who became hysterical at the morgue. Officials and mine officials declared that this phase of the relief program was conducted with impressive success. Most of the relief workers left Spangler tonight but the rescue cars sent here by the Bureau of Mines will remain until tomorrow.

A Graceful Lantern

No decoration will be more effective in dressing up the house at Christmas time than lanterns and candle shades of crepe paper and tinsel. A graceful lantern is illustrated here, made on a wire frame over which the paper covering is pasted and cut out figures are pasted to the sides. The long tassel may be of flannel or crepe paper. Festoons of flower petals, strung on cords, finish this pretty decoration.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER, 10th

—AT THE—
HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM

Under the Auspices of the Clearfield High School Athletic Association

Will occur the personal appearance in this city of BYRON G. HARLAN, whom you have heard many times on phonograph records. Mr. Harlan, with his pleasant personality and superior voice, affords the greatest pleasure by his unique character songs, impersonations and duets. He brings with him a company of talented artists: Miss Beth Hamilton is an American Violinist who always arouses enthusiasm from critics and audiences. Her training has been with the most eminent masters of America and Europe. She always reaches her audience with the first draw of her bow. Armstrong, "The Man of Mystery," one of the most versatile, refined and original entertainers, is an evening's entertainment in himself and must be seen and heard to be fully appreciated. Magic is an art that sometimes instructs, often amuses and always entertains. Miss Mabel H. Loomis is the pianist and accompanist and, although equipped with the technic of a virtuoso, she uses it only as a means of expressing; this she combines with a musical touch and artistic temperament in such a way as to make piano playing an art. Miss Loomis also renders a number of delightful vocal selections. Remember, our own favorite,

Miss Mary Mitchell, will make a record that you will see made and hear played on Friday. Get your tickets at Sheeder's Music House or from the High School students. Adults, $1.00; Children, 50c.

How Schooner Got Name.

How did the name "schooner" originate? It was about the year 1713 and at Gloucester the first vessel of the schooner type was launched. A tradition persists that enthusiastic at the speed made on her trial trip a boy exclaimed, "See how she scoons!" "A schooner let her be!" agreed the builder, hearing the remark. This is a probable story; the word schoon in ancient New England meant a flat stone to skip along the water.

A Nervous Woman.

Finest cold weather motor oil made — ATLANTIC Polarine

Winter places an added burden upon a motor lubricant. It must resist cold as well as heat. Ordinary oils are not specifically built to meet this two-fold requirement. Change now to ATLANTIC POLARINE. It is highest quality cold-weather motor oil, and correct for practically every car or truck made.

Special Sale at Reduced Prices November 4-27

Get Atlantic Polarine from the nearest Atlantic dealer now and save money on the price as well as on costly winter-trouble repairs. It will pay you to lay in a supply.

There is no other motor oil like Atlantic Polarine. None has its peculiar refinement and character. None has so wide a temperature range. Its "cold test" is remarkable. It flows freely at zero—reaches the closest-fitting bearings from the start of the motor. It won't congeal—no danger of clogged passages or bearings lacking lubrication while motor is warming up. Best motor life insurance you can buy for the winter!

HOW TWO WOMEN ESCAPED OPERATIONS

Doctor Advised Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Happy Results in Both Cases

St. Joseph, Missouri.—"Both of my sides ached and hurt me so that I could not move or do any of my work. There was heavy pressure and pains through my lower organs and the doctor told me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for these troubles. He said I had this one chance, and if the Vegetable Compound did not help me nothing but an operation would do. After taking several bottles I felt it was helping me and now I am able to do my own work. If my testimony will help others I shall be glad for them to read it and hope your Vegetable Compound will do them as much good as it did me." —Mrs. Wm. LOCKMAN, 513 N. 4th St., St. Joseph, Mo.

White Plains, N. Y.—"I had such a pain that I could hardly walk and the doctor said that I needed an operation. I was sick for a year before I started taking your medicine and I could not work. I saw your advertisement in a little book and that is how I came to take Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine. I have been taking the Vegetable Compound and Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine, also Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and the capsules and prescription recommended. I am doing all my work and have gained twenty pounds. I am taking the medicines still, but I feel fine. You have my permission to use this letter for the good of others." —Mrs. MARY MARK, 37 Hamilton Ave., White Plains, N. Y.

Some female troubles may through neglect reach a stage when an operation is necessary. But most of the common ailments are not the surgical ones; they are not caused by serious displacements, tumors, or growths, although the symptoms may appear the same.

When disturbing ailments first appear, take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve the present distress and prevent more serious troubles. Many letters have been received from women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after operations have been advised by attending physicians.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women" will be sent you free upon request. Write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts. This book contains valuable information.
